of wales rate should be remitted and enquired what that amount would be and how the same could be met. In reply, the President has submitted a Demand, Collection and Balance statement from which it will be seen that the total demand of wales-rate on shops from 1900-01, which is the year of its introduction, to 1902-03 is Rs 9,777-15-7. Out of this, a sum of Rs 6,546-9-8 has been recovered. The President says that the amounts already received will be adjusted during the current year in favour of the parties concerned towards other taxes due by them.

~~Draft recording the President's views is therefore submitted.~~ It is not however clear from the statement whether the figures therein given represent the net loss to the Municipality after deducting the lighting tax chargeable on shops.

Draft docket calling for additional information is therefore submitted. This may be filed after receiving reports from the Commissioners.
